TEXAS SALES TAX EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE

The undersigned hereby claims an exemption from payment of taxes under Chapter 20, Title 122A, Limited Sales and Use Tax, for the purchase of the taxable items, described below or on the attached order or invoice, which will be purchased from PORTER & SON, Seedsmen, Stephenville, Texas 76401.

This exemption is in accordance with Comptroller of Public Accounts Ruling .016 Agriculture, Animal Life, Feed, Seed, Plants and Fertilizer.

I understand that I will be liable for payment of the Limited Sales and Use Tax if I use the items in some manner other than in compliance with Ruling .016. Liability for the tax shall be based on the price paid for taxable items.

It is a misdemeanor to give exemption certificate to the seller for taxable items which I know at the time of purchase will be used in a manner other than expressed in this certificate, and upon conviction I understand that I may be fined up to $500 per offense.

HOME GARDENING is a healthful, satisfying and profitable project which can often reduce the family grocery costs considerably, and can be enjoyed by the entire family. Fresh vegetables from the home garden exceed shipped-in produce in both quality and flavor, and home grown flowers are most decorative and satisfying. A small, well-worked garden will actually "pay its way," as well as offering an ideal hobby. Where more space is not available, a sizeable flower bed provides a very suitable garden spot.

TOMATO SEED

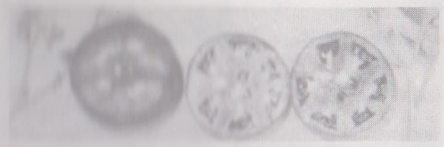
PORTER'S PRIDE TOMATO

PORTER'S PRIDE TOMATO (IMPROVED PORTER) — An ideal variety for home gardens and for summer and fall marketing. Medium sized fruits of excellent quality and flavor are very firm and have the best keeping qualities of any tomato. Uniform in size and shape, scarlet-red fruits are smooth and meaty and very flavorful. Indeterminate vine growth is vigorous, very productive, and provides good shading for fruits. Production will continue until frost. Green tomatoes picked just before frost damage can be stored for later use, often providing fresh tomatoes as late as year's end. Porter's Pride, like Porter Tomato, can be started from seed much later than most varieties, and still produce late summer and fall tomatoes. Don't fail to plant Porter's Pride for successful tomato growing. To prevent blossom-end rot in this variety, add garden gypsum or dolomite to soil at transplanting time, mulch soil surface, and maintain proper soil moisture. Pkt. 85¢; ½ oz. $4.00; 1 oz. $7.00; ¼ lb. $22.00; ½ lb. $36.00; 1 lb. $65.00.

PORTER TOMATO

PORTER TOMATO (THE OLD RELIABLE) — Sure to make a good crop, no matter how hot and dry, nor how poor the soil, and it will continue to bear until frost. As tomatoes are picked, more come on the vine to ripen out to an even, bright red, and then are replaced by still more tomatoes. Fruits are always smooth and never have hard cores, always ripen evenly from end to end and do not crack or sunburn. Flavor is excellent and is not affected by hot, dry weather. Flesh is firm and solid, and does not "munge up" in cooking. For this reason, Porter Tomato is unbeatable for making preserves and thick, fruity juice. Produces well on any kind of soil, even where other kinds often fail completely. Undoubtedly, it is the most certain to make tomatoes under unfavorable growing conditions. A dozen plants, well cared for, will make all the fresh tomatoes the average family will use. Fruits are about the size and shape of a pullet egg. For a sure crop of fresh, fine flavored tomatoes all season, be certain to include this variety in your seed order. Pkt. 85¢; ½ oz. $2.00; 1 oz. $3.50; ¼ lb. $12.00; ½ lb. $20.00; 1 lb. $32.00.

MERCED HYBRID TOMATO (V, F1&2, St, T) — Smooth-shouldered deep-globe shaped fruit ripening to a uniform bright red. Determinate plant continues to set fruit throughout the growing season, averaging 9 oz. per fruit. Widely adapted. Approximately 69 days from transplant to maturity. SEED SUPPLY LIMITED. Pkt. (Forty seed) $2.00.

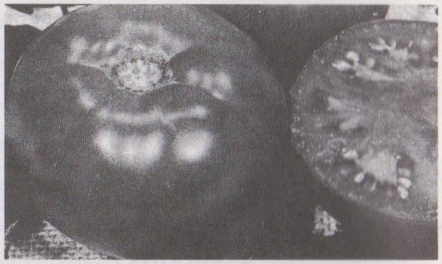


HEATWAVE HYBRID TOMATO

HEATWAVE HYBRID TOMATO (V, F1&2, A, St.) — Strong vined determinate plants producing medium to large, high quality fruits under adversely high temperatures of late summer and fall, thus extending production in warm climates. Heatwave should be seeded 30 to 60 days later than regular varieties and transplanted to garden early to mid summer. Now you can have quality home-grown tomatoes all season. Pkt. (Forty seeds) $2.00; ⅛ oz. $20.00; ⅛ oz. $35.00; ¼ oz. $65.00.

BEEFMASTER HYBRID TOMATO (VFN)

BEEFMASTER HYBRID TOMATO (VFN) — Large, indeterminate plants producing extremely large fruits of mild flavor and few seeds.



BETTER BOY HYBRID TOMATO (VFN)

BETTER BOY HYBRID TOMATO (VFN) — This variety "has it all." Large, smooth meaty fruits of outstanding flavor. Vigorous plants tolerant against wilt and nematodes, continues fruit setting throughout growing season, even under adverse growing conditions.

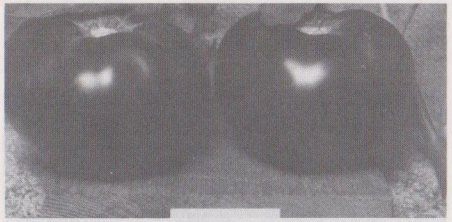
BIG BEEF HYBRID TOMATO (VF1&2, Asc, St, NT) — 1994 All-America Selections winner. Indeterminate plants are suitable for staking or caging. Multiple disease resistance. Attractive red meaty fruit average 9 to 12 oz. with "old-fashioned flavor." Harvest approximately 73 days after transplanting.

BLAZER HYBRID TOMATO

BLAZER HYBRID TOMATO (VF) — Uniform, firm, smooth, medium to large fruits with thick walls, excellent color. Medium size vines are vigorous and disease resistant, setting fruit in both cool and warm temperatures. A nice variety for long season production in home gardens.

CARNIVAL HYBRID TOMATO

CARNIVAL HYBRID TOMATO (V, F1&2, N.T) — We have grown many, many varieties over many years and have never seen production like CARNIVAL. Semi-determinate plants are multiple disease resistant, heavy producers. If you like Celebrity Hybrid Tomato, you will LOVE Carnival . . . fruits are slightly larger, thicker walled, earlier and uniform. An excellent variety for home garden and local market. A variety which is SURE to please any gardener.



CELEBRITY HYBRID TOMATO

CELEBRITY HYBRID TOMATO (V, F 1&2, N, T) — The 1984 All America Selections winner. Multiple disease resistance (Verticillium, Fusarium 1 & 2, root knot nematode and Tobacco Mosaic Virus) plus ability for good mid-early production under extreme conditions, plus strong, semi-determinate plants, plus large, deep, firm, exceptionally fine-flavored fruits all add up to a "super variety" for home gardens. Continues to set fruit under adverse conditions better than many other hybrid varieties. You will be the loser if you don't grow Celebrity Hybrid Tomato!

ENCHANTMENT HYBRID TOMATO (VF1&2, N, Bsp) — A real "eye-catcher" in our trials! Indeterminate plants continue to grow and produce 3 to 4 oz. plum-shaped Saladette-type fruit throughout the growing season. Caging or staking is recommended. Begin picking excellent flavored tomatoes about 70 days after transplant.

FIRST LADY HYBRID TOMATO

FIRST LADY HYBRID TOMATO (VFNT) — Extremely early . . . ripe fruits 66 days from transplanting. Indeterminate plants are resistant to nematodes and common tomato diseases. Medium sized, globe shaped fruits are smooth, crack resistant and very flavorful. Fine home garden variety . . . has that old fashioned "home grown tomato" taste.

FLORAMERICA TOMATO

FLORAMERICA HYBRID TOMATO (VF 1 & 2) — Large but determinate vine growth adapts well to staking or caging and plants are resistant to most tomato diseases. Sets fruit under cool conditions as well as during hot weather, production outstandingly heavy. Globe shaped, dark red, solid, large fruits (8 to 12 ozs.) have excellent flavor — fresh, canned or juiced. All American Selection for 1978. Seed supply is limited.

HUSKY GOLD HYBRID TOMATO (VF1) — The 1993 All America Selections winner. Dwarf indeterminate plant suitable for gardens, flower beds, patio planters and large pots. Produces 5-7 oz. golden fruit about 70 days after transplanting.

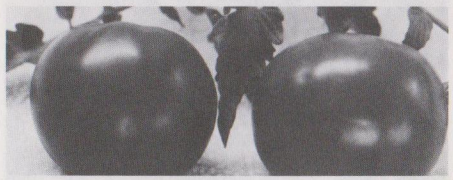
JACKPOT HYBRID TOMATO (VFN)

JACKPOT HYBRID TOMATO (VFN) — Compact vine with somewhat open foliage is resistant to common tomato diseases; high yielding with concentrated fruit set. Uniform ripening, large fruits are very smooth and attractive. Early bearing. A nice spring or fall home garden variety.

LEMON BOY HYBRID TOMATO

LEMON BOY HYBRID YELLOW TOMATO (VFN Asc St) — Indeterminate, heavy bearing plants are resistant to root knot nematodes and common tomato diseases. Three to four inch fruits are lemon-yellow throughout, mild flavored, attractive in salads.

PATIO HYBRID TOMATO (F) — The "modern" tree tomato . . . sturdy, dwarf, upright plants producing medium sized, smooth, good quality fruits in abundance . . . both ornamental and very edible.



PRESIDENT HYBRID TOMATO (VF 1&2, N, T)

PRESIDENT HYBRID TOMATO (VF 1 & 2, N, T) — Very productive, determinate plants are disease resistant and provide ample foliage coverage to prevent sunburn of fruits. Medium to large, smooth, firm, fine flavored, bright red fruits. Continuous production into fall season. A modern variety with that old fashioned "home garden tomato" taste.

SUREFIRE (GS-12) HYBRID TOMATO (VF1) — Recommended by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for fall gardens in Texas. Firm, meaty, round fruit which resist radial cracking and store well. Determinate plant. Approximately 65 days from transplant to first ripe fruit.

TERRIFIC HYBRID TOMATO (VFN)

TERRIFIC HYBRID TOMATO (VFN) — Medium large, smooth, deep red, thick meated fruits of very good quality and flavor. Indeterminate vine growth (continue to branch) resistant to verticillium and fusarium wilt and nematodes, and continue to bear over a long season. Extremely fine variety for commerical plantings, home gardens and staking.

VIVA ITALIA HYBRID TOMATO (V, F1, F2, N, Bsp, Asc, St) — Determinate plant produces blocky-pear shaped Roma-type fruit, even in hot weather. High in natural sugars. Excellent for fresh market, canning, freezing and eating fresh off the vine. Multiple disease resistance.

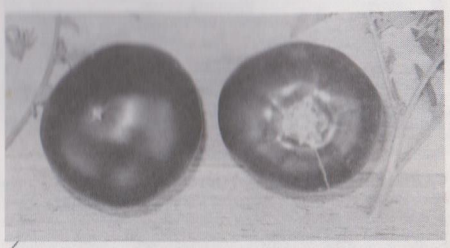
ABOVE 17 VARIETIES HYBRID TOMATO SEEDS at the following prices: Pkt. (Forty seeds) $1.00; 1/16 oz. $10.00; 1/8 oz. $16.00; 1/4 oz. $24.00; 1/2 oz. $40.00; 1 oz. $68.00.

BINGO HYBRID TOMATO

BINGO HYBRID TOMATO (V, FF, T, A, St.) — Large, determinate plants are multiple disease resistant. Firm, large, smooth, thick-walled fruits are very red, globe shaped. Plants are vigorous producers of early tomatoes and continue bearing thru a long season.

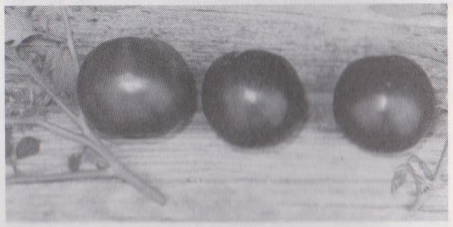
DONA HYBRID TOMATO (V, F2, N, T)

DONA HYBRID TOMATO (V, F2, N, T) — Large, vigorous, disease-resistant plants need staking or caging to support heavy crop production. Large 6 ounce fruits are round-flat, deep red in color, solid and meaty and have that "old time, home grown tomato flavor." Wonderful for home use and local market but not especially adapted to shipping . . . not firm enough, but "super" flavor. SEED SUPPLY VERY LIMITED!



SIMBA HYBRID TOMATO

SIMBA HYBRID TOMATO (V, F, N, T) — Vigorous plants seven to eight feet tall (indeterminate) have produced all summer and fall in our plantings. Nematode resistant plants are well suited to garden, greenhouse or field production. Fruits are large, crack resistant and very flavorful. Simba was outstanding in our plantings.



WHIRLAWAY HYBRID TOMATO

WHIRLAWAY HYBRID TOMATO (V, FF, A, St.) — A medium to large fruited variety proven in Texas. Early bearing, determinate, lush-foliaged plants provide ample sunburn protection. Plants resistant to common diseases and ours in 1989 showed less early blight damage than several other varieties. Fruits are crack resistant, great flavor and "jointless".

ABOVE 4 VARIETIES HYBRID TOMATO SEED: Pkt. (Forty seeds) $2.00; 1/16 oz. $10.00; 1/8 oz. $18.00; 1/4 oz. $28.00; 1/2 oz. $48.00; 1 oz. $78.00.

SUNNY HYBRID TOMATO (V1, F 1 & 2, S, A)

SUNNY HYBRID TOMATO (V1, F 1 & 2, S, A) (PVP) — Very productive, compact determinate vines are disease resistant. Good foliage coverage gives fruit protection against sunburn. Medium to large, firm fruits are uniform, smooth, deep-shape, of excellent quality and flavor. Very smooth and crack resistant. Pkt. (Forty seeds) $2.00; 1/16 oz. $18.00; 1/8 oz. $30.00; 1/4 oz. $48.00; 1/2 oz. $85.00; 1 oz. $140.00.

TROPIC TOMATO (VF) — Large, deep fruits are smooth, firm and well-flavored. Strong, indeterminate vines with ample foliage are resistant to fusarium and verticillium wilts and tolerant to gray leaf spot and tobacco mosaic virus. Extremely satisfactory as stake tomatoes and for winter greenhouse production. Popularity of this variety grows each year. Pkt. 85¢; 1/2 oz. $2.50; 1 oz. $4.00; 1/4 lb. $12.00; 1/2 lb. $20.00; 1 lb. $35.00.

YELLOW STUFFER TOMATO

YELLOW STUFFER TOMATO — Tall, vigorous plants producing bright yellow tomatoes that look like bell peppers . . . ideal for stuffing and salads . . . very attractive and unusual. Pkt. (Forty seeds) $1.00; 1/8 oz. $2.25; 1/4 oz. $3.50; 1/2 oz. $6.00; 1 oz. $10.00.

SANTIAM TOMATO

SANTIAM TOMATO — A "super early" variety which produces mostly seedless tomatoes 4 to 5 ounces in size, good quality, mild, slightly acid, sweet and juicy. Determinate plants to 30 inches bear an abundance of fruit. Pkt. (Forty seeds) $1.00; 1/16 oz. $3.75; 1/8 oz. $6.50.

CHAMPION HYBRID TOMATO (VFNT) — Very productive, medium sized plants are disease resistant and nematode resistant. Early producing and sets a good fall crop. Medium to large fruits of good flavor and color.

EARLY GIRL HYBRID TOMATO (V) — The earliest ripening variety of the best hybrids. Solid, red, meaty fruits of medium size. Large growing vines bear until frost.

SUPER FANTASTIC HYBRID TOMATO (VFN) — A popular garden tomato. Indeterminate plants produce an abundance of meaty, flavorful, smooth tomatoes of medium to large size.

ABOVE 3 VARIETIES OF HYBRID TOMATO SEED at the following prices: Pkt. (Forty seeds) $1.00; 1/16 oz. $8.00; 1/8 oz. $14.00.

ABOVE 4 VARIETIES ARE AVAILABLE ONLY IN QUANTITIES LISTED.

SUPERSWEET 100 HYBRID CHERRY TOMATO (VF) — An amazingly large number of small, salad-type, round, sweet flavored, red tomatoes borne on large vines. Pkt. (Twenty-five seeds) $1.00; 1/16 oz. $12.00; 1/8 oz. $18.00.

TOY BOY HYBRID TOMATO (VF) — "Sweet-as-candy" ping-pong ball sized fruits produced on attractive, graceful trailing plants . . . ideal for hanging baskets, planters, window boxes, etc., inside or outside. A really "fun" tomato for young and old alike. Pkt. (Twenty-five seeds) $1.00; 100 seed $3.00.

OTHER TOMATO VARIETIES — The following varieties are still popular with many home gardeners and certainly are worthwhile varieties.

JUBILEE TOMATO (Orange or yellow fruited) — A medium-early variety producing large, orange colored fruits which are solid, meaty, non-acid mild flavored. Pkt. 85¢; 1/2 oz. $3.75; 1 oz. $4.75; 1/4 lb. $15.00; 1/2 lb. $25.00; 1 lb. $42.00.

PINK PONDEROSA (BEEFSTEAK) TOMATO — Possibly the largest fruited of all tomatoes. Plant growth is large, fruits are large and somewhat flattened, very few seeds, mild flavored and solid. This variety is interesting to grow because of the unusual size of fruits. Pkt. 85¢; 1/2 oz. $3.75; 1 oz. $4.75; 1/4 lb. $15.00; 1/2 lb. $25.00; 1 lb. $42.00.

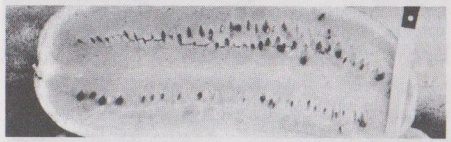
YELLOW PEAR TOMATO — Pkt. 85¢; 1/2 oz. $4.00; 1 oz. $5.50; 1/4 lb. $16.50; 1/2 lb. $28.00; 1 lb. $50.00

ADDITIONAL TOMATO VARIETIES — We can also furnish quality seeds of the following varieties (either new developments or standard varieties for which we have had recent inquiries) for immediate shipment at following prices: Pkt. 85¢; 1/2 oz. $2.75; 1 oz. $4.50; 1/4 lb. $14.00; 1/2 lb. $24.00; 1 lb. $40.00. HOMESTEAD, MARGLOBE, RED CHERRY, ROMA.

TOMATILLO — An important ingredient in Mexican cooking. Grown like tomatoes. Sprawling plants may be pinched back to control spread. Fruit look like small green tomatoes wrapped in papery husks. Harvest when husk loosens and fruit turns pale yellow. Remove husk before cooking. Pkt. (Forty seeds) $1.00; 1/4 oz. $3.00; 1/2 oz. $5.00; 1 oz. $8.00; 1/4 lb. $30.00.

WATERMELON SEED

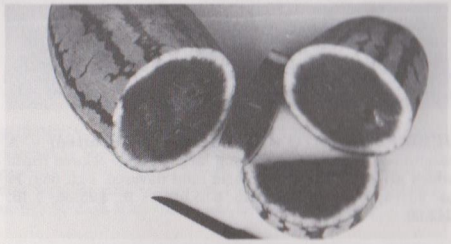
BLACK DIAMOND (YELLOW BELLY) WATERMELON — Large, well-shaped, dark blue-black melons which are yellow-bellied where they touch the ground. Melons are slightly oblong, with very definite creases. Rind tough enough for shipping. Under favorable conditions, melons will grow to 50 pounds or better. Bright red flesh is sweet and tender for a large melon. Vine growth is vigorous, providing some protection from sunburn. A fine home, local market and shipping melon.



CHARLESTON GRAY WATERMELON

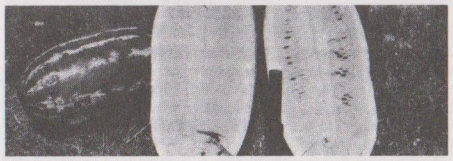
CHARLESTON GRAY WATERMELON — Charleston Gray Watermelon is a variety which has many good qualities long sought by commercial melon growers. Developed by USDA Southeastern Vegetable Breeding Laboratory, Charleston Gray has been thoroughly tested in Texas and has proved to be a fine melon.

Plants are resistant to fusarium wilt and anthracnose, and are long bearing. Light gray-green, long, blunt ended melons with tough rinds load and ship exceptionally well. Melons are well shaped and sunburn resistant. Some grow to 50 pounds, average 30 to 35 pounds. The smaller melons in a field (18 to 20 pounds) are of good quality. Flesh is bright red, fine textured, sweet and well flavored. Vigorous growing vines continue to put on new melons even under adverse growing conditions. Melons are very attractive in appearance and are fine for home use, local or shipping market.



JUBILEE WATERMELON

JUBILEE WATERMELON — Striped light and dark rind, long, black-seeded melons with bright red, sweet, fine-textured flesh. Vigorous vines are resistant to fusarium wilt and anthracnose. Melons grow to 35 or 40 pounds, fine shipper and popular home garden variety.

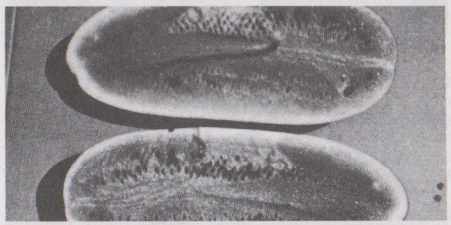


ORANGE FLESH TENDERSWEET WATERMELON

ORANGE FLESH TENDERSWEET WATERMELON — For many years Tendersweet has been a leading variety among yellow meated melons, and a favorite with many growers. Here is a more recently developed strain which grows larger than the regular Tendersweet and withstands severe growing conditions. Melons are oblong, with mottled stripes running from end to end. Rind tough enough for hauling. Flesh is bright orange, crisp and very sweet. A fine variety for home use, local market and trucking.

SUGAR BABY WATERMELON — An early maturing ice-box type melon of excellent quality. Grows from 8 to 10 pounds, almost perfectly round. Rind dark green with slightly darker stripes, thin and hard. Flesh bright red, fine textured and of extremely fine flavor. A fine home garden and local market melon of the ice-box type.

ABOVE 5 VARIETIES OF WATERMELONS at following prices: Pkt. 85¢; 1 oz. $2.00; ¼ lb. $5.00; ½ lb. $7.50; 1 lb. $10.00.



ALLSWEET WATERMELON

ALLSWEET WATERMELON — Allsweet is a "real winner" developed by Kansas State University. Bright red, extremely sweet, firm flesh with very few, small seeds. Rind ¾ inch thick, tough and very shipable. Melons long, light and dark striped with long-lasting keeping qualities. Average 25 to 30 pounds.

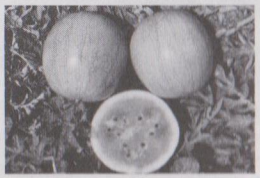
CRIMSON SWEET WATERMELON

CRIMSON SWEET WATERMELON — Bright red, fine flavored, fine textured, sweet flesh. Melons from 15 to 25 pounds, oval, striped light and dark green. Thin, tough rind makes for good hauling and long keeping.

GOLDEN HONEY WATERMELON — A fine home garden variety. Dark green rind is irregularly striped with darker green. Flesh bright yellow, very sweet. Grows from 25 to 30 pounds.

ABOVE 3 VARIETIES OF WATERMELONS at following prices: Pkt. 85¢; 1 oz. $3.00; ¼ lb. $8.00; ½ lb. $12.00; 1lb. $16.00.

BUSH JUBILEE WATERMELON (PVP) — Compact plants only five feet across very suitable for limited garden space, and are disease resistant. Oblong fruits are light and dark green striped, bright red flesh, fine textured, and sweet. Pkt. (Thirty seeds) $1.00; ¼ oz. $1.50; ½ oz. $2.50; 1 oz. $4.00; ¼ lb. $12.50.



MINILEE WATERMELON

MINILEE WATERMELON (PVP) — Fruits slightly oblong, averaging 7 pounds. Tough rind is gray-green with faint streaking, bright red flesh, small seeds. Limited vine growth permits closer spacing . . . fine for home gardens. Pkt. (30 seed) $1.00; ½ oz. $4.50; 1 oz. $7.00; ¼ lb. $17.50.

SANGRIA HYBRID WATERMELON

SANGRIA HYBRID WATERMELON (Fl, A1) — Sangria is a DANDY! The classic look of Allsweet and the sweetness of Crimson Sweet, plus resistance to Fusarium 1 and Anthracnose 1, and sugar levels above 11%. Deep red interior, crisp, firm flesh. Uniform, oblong, light-and-dark-green striped rind, average 22 to 25 pounds. Productive plants have fewer "knots" than other varieties and mature melons 2 to 5 days earlier than Allsweet. Pkt. (Thirty seeds) $1.00; ¼ oz. $5.50; ½ oz. $9.50; 1 oz. $16.00; ¼ lb. $48.00.

DIXIE QUEEN HYBRID WATERMELON

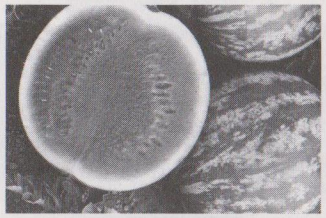
DIXIE QUEEN HYBRID WATERMELON — Rind is very thin and tough, light green with dark green, irregular stripes. Melons grow from 30 to 50 pounds, with deep red, fine textured, sweet flesh. Vines are vigorous and fusarium wilt resistant. Hybrid vigor is very evident in this first generation, hand pollinated strain.

ROYAL JUBILEE HYBRID WATERMELON

ROYAL JUBILEE HYBRID WATERMELON — Red-meated, striped rind, disease resistant. Earlier and more productive than standard Jubilee.

ABOVE 2 VARIETIES HYBRID WATERMELON at following prices: Pkt. (Thirty seeds) $1.00; ¼ oz. $3.75; ½ oz. $6.00; 1 oz. $11.00; ¼ lb. $40.00; ½ lb. $70.00.

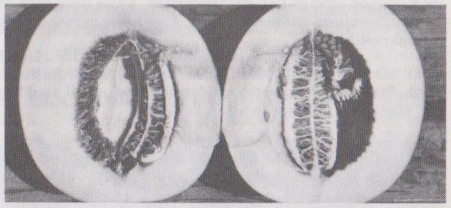
YELLOW DOLL HYBRID WATERMELON — Round melons to 8 pounds, crisp, sweet yellow flesh. Ideal "icebox" type melon, very productive. Pkt. (Thirty seeds) $1.00; ¼ oz. $7.00; ½ oz. $12.00; 1 oz. $20.00.



JACK OF HEARTS

JACK OF HEARTS SEEDLESS TRIPLOID WATERMELON (SEEDLESS) — "Super" flavor, color and texture and NO SEED when grown under flavorable conditions. May develop a few false seed if growing conditions are adverse. Rind is medium green with darker stripes, round melons weigh 10 to 12 pounds, sweet red meat is excellent eating. Pollinator seed included. Pkt. (20 seeds) $4.00; (50 seeds) $8.00.

CANTALOUPE SEED



ANANAS CANTALOUPE (ISRAEL)

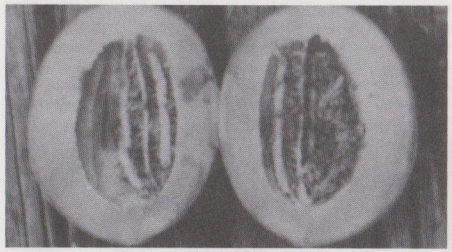
ANANAS CANTALOUPE (ISRAEL) — Continues to gain popularity with home gardeners, truck farmers and local markets. Large, productive vines, oval fruits to five pounds, orange-red rind is slightly netted, no sutures. White flesh is very sweet and aromatic. This variety is one "folks ask for."

BANANA CANTALOUPE — Long, slender, banana shaped fruits are creamy yellow, very smooth skinned with slight ribbing. Salmon colored flesh is well flavored.

GOLDEN BEAUTY CASABA — A home garden and local market variety. Fruits large, golden yellow with tough wrinkled rind. Flesh thick, white and spicy. Keeps well in storage.

HALES BEST NO. 36 CANTALOUPE — A very early shipping and home garden variety. Fruits are uniform, firm, almost round with heavy netting, very slightly ribbed. Small seed cavity, thick, solid, salmon flesh of excellent flavor. Vine growth vigorous and productive.

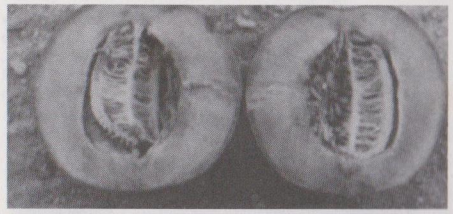
JUMBO HALES BEST CANTALOUPE — A large-fruited cantaloupe of exceptionally good quality and flavor, with thick, firm flesh. Slightly ribbed, heavily netted. Plant growth is vigorous and productive, and early maturing.



RESISTANT 4-50 CANTALOUPE

RESISTANT 4-50 CANTALOUPE — A large type of Resistant 45, fine for home use or shipping. Heavy net, medium ribs. Keeps in good condition longer after picking than most varieties. Flesh thick, firm and sweet, plants resistant to powdery mildew.

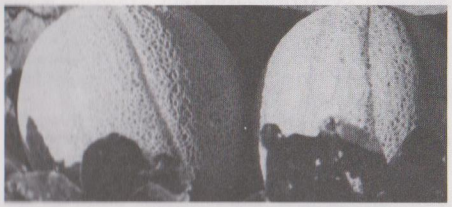
ROCKY FORD CANTALOUPE — Extra early, medium sized, uniform fruits with green tinted flesh which is sweet, fine-flavored and never stringy. Vines are very productive. This is the old, original green-fleshed strain of Rocky Ford.



SMITH'S PERFECT CANTALOUPE

SMITH'S PERFECT CANTALOUPE — Fruits medium to large, slight ribbing, coarse sparse net. Medium thick flesh is firm, rich flavor and aroma, resist cracking.

TAM DEW CANTALOUPE — Honeydew-type melon tolerant to downy and powdery mildew. Fruit are 7 inches by 6½ inches, creamy white outside with green flesh. Fine for home use and shipping. Maturity about 95 days.



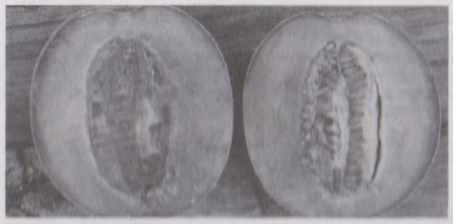
PERLITA CANTALOUPE

PERLITA CANTALOUPE — Plants resistant to powdery and downy mildew; mid-early, round fruits 3 to 5 pounds, lightly netted, light sutures, thick walled. Salmon flesh, excellent flavor.

TAM UVALDE CANTALOUPE

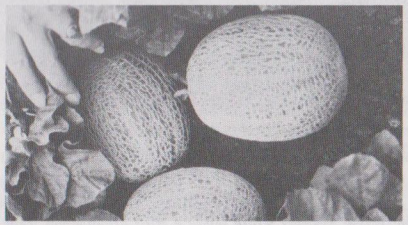
TAM UVALDE CANTALOUPE (D-PMR) — This newer variety is excellent for home gardens and commercial plantings. Productive plants, some producing up to 10 melons, are resistant to Downy and Powdery Mildew. Firm round-oval fruits from 2 to 3 pounds are heavily netted, thick orange meat with small seed cavity. Flavor is excellent. Tam Uvalde will be considered by many growers as the "perfect" Cantaloupe.

ABOVE 11 VARIETIES CANTALOUPES at following prices: Pkt. 85¢; 1 oz. $2.25; ¼ lb. $5.50; ½ lb. $8.00; 1 lb. $11.00.



AMBROSIA HYBRID CANTALOUPE

AMBROSIA HYBRID CANTALOUPE — Ambrosia has pleased everyone growing it. Vigorous vines are resistant to Powdery Mildew, produce an abundance of medium size, thick meated, exceptionally sweet and juicy fruits. Small seed cavity, firm salmon flesh is "good eating" right down to the rind. Pkt. (Thirty seeds) $1.00; ¼ oz. $8.50; ½ oz. $15.00; 1 oz. $25.00; ¼ lb. $85.00.

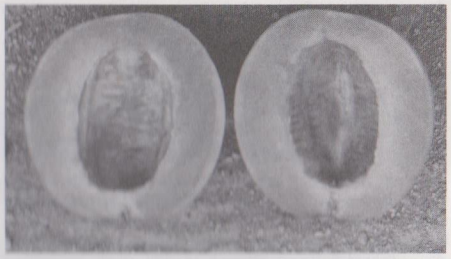


BUSH STAR HYBRID CANTALOUPE

BUSH STAR HYBRID CANTALOUPE — Early, compact, bush-type plant permits growing in tubs, flowerbeds or small garden areas. Light sutures, medium net, medium sized, salmon-colored flesh is sweet and flavorful. Plants are powdery mildew resistant.

CHACA NO. 1 HYBRID CANTALOUPE — Gourmet type for the most critical gardener — sweet, thick, salmon-orange flesh, medium ribbed rind, oval melons weighing to 3½ pounds. Plants productive, powdery mildew and fusarium wilt resistant, early bearing.

CARAVELLE HYBRID CANTALOUPE (PMR1) — Round, sutureless, even-netted fruit averaging 4 pounds. Small seed cavity, bright orange thick flesh. Powdery mildew resistant. Maturity approximately 77 days.



CLASSIC HYBRID CANTALOUPE

CLASSIC HYBRID CANTALOUPE — Strong vigorous vines with tolerance to fusarium wilt and powdery mildew. Thick, salmon, superbly flavored flesh. Early bearing, high yielding . . . fine for home gardens or local market.

DIXIE JUMBO
HYBRID CANTALOUPE

VEGETABLE PLANTS

These plants are state inspected and guaranteed to be disease and pest free, shipped at proper planting time. We guarantee these plants to reach you in good condition for planting. However, as successful gardening depends to a great extent upon care, soil, and climatic conditions, we cannot be responsible for growth of plants or for crops produced. Please do not order less than minimum number stated for each kind of plants, as these are the smallest amounts we can ship per variety. Use Rapid-Gro, Miracle Gro, or other soluble plant food as starter solution at time of transplanting; this will greatly improve growth and production of crop. Regret but we cannot ship vegetable plants to Arizona or California.

FUNGICIDES

(PLEASE READ AND HEED)

PLANT DISEASE CONTROL — Chemical Fungicides, when properly used, give excellent control of plant diseases of many kinds, but they must be used as a preventative prior to infection. Once plant diseases are established, little can be done to correct the situation. Therefore, it is essential to use a regular spraying or dusting program, started before diseases are established, to maintain a chemical "barrier" over the entire leaf and stem surfaces to prevent disease establishment . . . repeat spraying or dusting every 7 to 14 days and after each rain. Read and follow label directions.

AGRI-STREP — Streptomycin sulfate for control of fire blight on fruit trees. Use 4 oz. to 1 lb. per 100 gallons of water. 8 oz. $11.25.

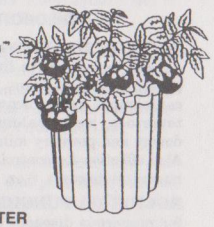
WE TRIED IT AND LIKED IT

WE TRIED IT AND LIKED IT ... YOU WILL TOO — Upon suggestion of Texas Extension Service folks we wrapped some of our tomato cages with clear plastic from ground up to top when plants were set out in early April (cage tops left open) in trying to prevent Tomato Spotted Wilt Virus. Plastic was removed in late May and to our delight, foliage and fruits were "beautiful" . . . no sunburn, no foliage or fruit disease, and good production. The early-protected plants continued to ripen fruits and set new fruits throughout summer and fall while plants in open cages were damaged by disease and insects and production did not compare. Evidently the plastic wrap gave the plants early protection and better growing conditions.

CLEAR PLASTIC SHEETING (6′ × 100′ × 4 mil) — Ideal for covering hotbeds, coldframes, plant cages, etc. $19.95.

Wall O' Water



WALL O' WATER

WALL O' WATER — Insulate plants against temperature fluctuations; capture solar heat during the day to be slowly released through cool nights. DISEASE RESISTANCE/TOLERANCE ABBREVIATIONS — The degree of resistance or tolerance is influenced by many factors. Varieties indicated as resistant or tolerant are not totally immune to these disease problems:

Asc or A	Alternaria stem canker
Bsp	Baceterial speck
F	Fusarium wilt
F1 or F2	Fusarium wilt, race 1 or 2
N	Nematode (root knot)
PMR	Powdery mildew
St	Stemphylium (gray leaf spot)
TMV or T	Tobacco mosaic virus
V	Verticillium wilt
V1 or V2	Verticillium wilt, race 1 or 2

SPIDERMITE DAMAGE — Much damage is caused in home gardens by spidermites, with the grower often not realizing the problem. Most vegetables and many flowers are subject to such damage . . . lower leaves become mottled or stippled, turn "rusty-gold," dry up and die. Damage advances right up the plant with webbing appearing in severe cases, and plants dying. Tiny red, green, yellow or black, six or eight-legged mites can be seen with magnifying glass. Without control, plants usually are killed completely, with loss often being thought due to nematodes or other insects. Tomatoes, beans, peas, cucumbers, melons, carnations, chrysanthemums, sweet peas, snapdragons, roses and many other plants are damaged by spidermites. Control by spraying with Kelthane, Diazinon, Sulphur Insecticides.

PLANTING BY SOIL TEMPERATURES

IMPROVE STAND and spring grow-off of seedlings by waiting until soil at planting depth warms to minimum temperatures listed below. Minimum soil temperatures at 10:00 a.m. on three consecutive days should indicate satisfactory planting conditions.

Endive, Onion, Parsnip . . . 40 degrees F.
Beets, Carrots, Lettuce, Parsley, Spinach . . . 45 degrees F.
Broccoli, Brussels Sprouts, Cabbage, Cauliflower, Celery, Chard, Field Corn, Garden (English) Peas, Radish, Turnip . . . 50 degrees F.
Asparagus, Sweet Corn (except Super Sweets), Tomato . . . 60 degrees F.
Snap Beans, Lima Beans, Cantaloupe, Cowpeas (Blackeyes, etc.), Cucumbers, Egg Plant, Okra, Pepper, Pumpkin, Squash, Watermelon . . . 70 degrees F.

For earlier harvest, many varieties may be started inside in bands, peat pots, etc., and transplanted outside when weather permits.

For fall gardens, soil temperatures of 65 degrees to 90 degrees are most suitable, depending on whether cool-weather or warm-weather crops. Most vegetable seeds are severely damaged or killed at soil temperatures exceeding 90 or 95 degrees F.

"Hill" means simply a group of seed—not a mound for planting.

BLOSSOM-END ROT IN TOMATOES — A dark, sunken area opposite stem is due to extreme variations in soil moisture, plus a deficiency of available calcium. This condition may be prevented with surface mulch material to maintain uniform soil moisture, along with soil or foliage application of calcium. Garden Gypsum or Dolomitic Limestone applications will efficiently prevent this rot, provided ample, uniform soil moisture is available. Some tomato varieties are more subject to this rot than other varieties. For neutral or alkaline soils add Garden Gypsum, for acid soils add Dolomitic Limestone.

LOOPER AND WORM DAMAGE to Broccoli, Brussels Sprouts, Cabbage, Collards and other cole crops can be effectively and safely controlled with Thuricide Insecticide spray applications if started early enough . . . and crops can be gathered and used the same day as spray is applied.

WEED KILLERS (HERBICIDES) FOR GARDEN USE — Herbicides (chemical weed controls) are excellent "farming, tools" when the situation permits . . . but, for home gardening the best weed controls within the garden itself are the plow and hoe. Our suggestion is "forget about chemical weed controls in your garden . . . none are completely satisfactory and can cause great damage if improperly used."

GREEN ONIONS OR MATURE ONIONS — Start seed, sets or plants as early in the fall as possible for green onions. For mature onions, delay planting until warm weather is over in your area, or until early spring. Use only phosphate fertilizer until spring growth begins, then sidedress with adequate nitrogen to maintain optimum growth for mature onions, and use varieties adapted to your area.

CONTROL OF PECAN WEEVIL — Damage to your pecan crop by the Pecan Weevil can be prevented . . . spray trees with Sevin Insecticide when adult weevils emerge from soil after late August or early September rains. For correct spraying time in your area, contact your County Extension Agent.
